NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON LOCAL AND ORAL HISTORY OF THE POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES

The Polytechnic University of the Philippines (PUP) will conduct its National Conference on Local and Oral History with the theme State of Philippine Localities: Communication, Transportation and Public Works in the 18th and 19th Centuries from April 4 to 6, 2017 at the Bulwagang Bonifacio of the Ninoy Aquino Library and Learning Resources Center of the PUP Main Campus, Sta. Mesa, Manila.

The Conference aims to:

1. promote among the participants a better understanding of the localities through paper presentations and discussions on the factors and forces which shaped them since their humble beginnings until the present;
2. let them examine the roles and contributions of local history in national history and development;
3. provide them with rudiments of research and effective strategies in teaching local history; and
4. enable them to initiate the idea of developing the historical and cultural sites of these localities into travel destinations or landmarks.

The target participants are teachers, head teachers and supervisors who are handling or who have background in Araling Panlipunan or Civics and Culture from both public and private schools within and outside Metro Manila.
