RE: Request for Endorsement

Dear Sir/Madame:

We are honored to invite you to our August Seminar-Workshop and request for the Endorsement of the said project. Please find below the details of the seminar-workshop:

National Seminar-Workshop on Learner-Centered Education

Theme: Identifying Strengths and Addressing Common Learning Difficulties among Filipino Students (DepEd Advisory No. 104, s. 2015 May 4, 2016)

Date: August 26-28, 2016

Venue: National Educators Academy of the Philippines, inside Teachers' Camp, Leonard Wood Rd., Baguio City

Objectives:

1. To familiarize and enable classroom teachers to identify and harness multiple intelligences toward excellence and holistic development;
2. To provide practical guidelines for doable interventions for common learning difficulties; and,
3. To produce lessons and materials for various subjects directed toward the development of students with learning difficulties.

Proposed Program of Activities

Day 1 Friday

AM Registration

PM

Session 1

Recognizing and Developing Learners' Strengths

Learners come from diverse backgrounds and understandably have varying aptitudes for learning. In this light, educators need to understand that not all approaches or strategies work well with everyone. The objective of this workshop is to equip classroom teachers with the knowledge and ability to recognize and harness the strengths of learners' aptitudes and abilities to maximize their learning potential with the end goal of developing independent learners.

Workshop 1

Day 2 Saturday

Session 2

Identifying Common Learning Difficulties among Filipino Learners

This session focuses on identifying and discussing telltale signs of learning difficulties in and among Filipino students that may easily be mistaken by teachers as an apparent lack of academic aptitude. This is an ideal session for teachers with little or no background in psychology, and/or special education.

Workshop 2

Session 3

Practical Interventions for Common Learning Difficulties

This session ideally presents teachers with practical and applicable interventions to effectively address common learning difficulties in their own classrooms. While it is ideal that interventions be un-undertaken by licensed therapist or SPED professionals, classroom teachers may well be equipped with basic knowledge on how to deal with difficulties that may easily be remedied with the proper approach and strategies and support of parents.

Workshop 3

Day 3 Sunday

Session 4

Developing Inclusive Lessons and Learning Materials

Recognizing the diversity of student aptitudes in one class, teachers need to design lessons and learning materials that address the need of all students. These need to be able to challenge the more advanced students as well as maximize the potentials of students who need more time to learn. The objective of this session is to present practical strategies directed toward the design and development of instruction and instructional materials that cater to all kinds of learners.
