INTERNATIONAL HIGHER EDUCATION RESEARCH FORUM 2017
OF THE PHILIPPINE HIGHER EDUCATION
RESEARCH CONSORTIUM

The Philippine Higher Education Research Consortium (PHERC), formerly the Philippine Association of State Universities and Colleges–National Capital Region (PASUC–NCR), will hold its International Higher Education Research Forum (IHERF) 2017 with the theme Creating New Pathways Through Research for Higher Education Competitiveness from August 23 to 25, 2017 at the New World Manila Bay Hotel, 1568 Perdo Gil corner Marcelo H. Del Pilar, Malate, Manila.

The Forum aims to:

1. bring together faculty, researchers, and educational leaders across disciplinary interests to exchange information on research and development, share research experiences and achievements, and disseminate research results in their distinctive areas of competence;
2. provide colleagues with the opportunity to explore research initiatives, partnerships and collaborations beyond their institutions; and
3. strengthen research capacity of higher education institutions (HEIs) particularly the state universities and colleges in the Philippines and other countries around the world.

The target participants are faculty members, graduate students and research enthusiasts from various universities, colleges, and public and private organizations, institutions, and industries with renowned international and national scholars, policy makers, academicians and administrators as conference speakers. The elementary and high school teachers from both public and private schools are invited to attend the Forum.
