14TH NATIONAL COVENTION OF THE INTEGRATED PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELORS ASSOCIATION OF THE PHILIPPINES INC. CONFERENCE-
WORKSHOP-SEMINAR OF DE LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

The e-Learning Research Team of Integrated Professional Counselors Association of the Philippines (IPCAP) Inc. will conduct its 14th De La Salle University (DLSU) will conduct its Conference-Workshop-Seminar with the theme Networked Learning: ICT for Education in the Philippines and Asia from May 12 to 13, 2017 at the DLSU, Manila.

The Convention Conference-Workshop-Seminar and Seminar/Training aims to:

1. strain and equip teacher-participants in using student-centered, technology aided instruction in line with the 21st century education;
2. complement the K to 12 Curriculum with the latest, state-of-the-art open online learning environment and highly immersive e-learning pedagogies;
3. propose creative solutions using the Internet leading to a roadmap to Philippine Information Communication Technology (ICT) for education and development; and
4. provide the participants with an avenue for research presentation and intellectual discussions regarding best practices in ICT for Education.

1. Convene and organize the Non-Teaching Opersonnel Association in every region in order to have a unified stand for the privileges and opportunities form members of the Non-Teaching Group in the Department of Education; and

2. Equip them with proper training for office frontliners, Rules of Procedures and Rationalization Plan implementation.

The target participants are the teachers and heads or principals from both public and private non-teaching personnel from Luzon area elementary and secondary schools.
