Memorandum Order No. 11
Series of 2018

TO : ALL DEPARTMENT HEADS/CHIEFS OF OFFICES
This City

SUBJECT: DEPARTMENT/OFFICE ASSIGNMENTS FOR THE ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER
NOVENA MASSES STARTING ON APRIL 22, 2018

As the Province of Bohol braces for the fiesta season, Tagbilaran, the capital city, is getting ready to welcome visitors, both local and foreign, to the grand celebration of "Saulog Tagbilaran 2018", in honor of Saint Joseph the Worker, the City's patron saint. This is an opportunity to reaffirm OUR commonly-held societal values, zooming in on the family. Likewise, this will showcase the religious and cultural activities and gastronomic treats that each household prepare, as May 1 is considered the opening salvo of the fiesta season in the merry month of May.

While the City Government of Tagbilaran is undertaking feverish preparations for the nightly entertainments, tapping performers from the City Government offices, barangays, educational institutions, national government agencies, and business establishments, which is part and parcel of the remarkable Filipino hospitality that is most evident in welcoming our fiesta visitors, we are all the more preparing for our spiritual involvement in the novena masses, believing that all our efforts in the City Government of Tagbilaran are offered for God's greater glory.

In this connection, please take note of your specific department/office assignments found on the attached "Kalitamdán - Tambanan sa Kapistahan ni Sr. San Jose nga Mamumuo." Moreover, you will be given envelopes for the offertory.

FOR INFORMATION, GUIDANCE, AND COMPLIANCE.

THE STORY OF ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER
Fr. Don Miller, OFM

To foster deep devotion to Saint Joseph among Catholics, and in response to the "May Day" celebrations for workers sponsored by Communists, Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker in 1955. This feast extends the long relationship between Joseph and the cause of workers in both Catholic faith and devotion. Beginning in the Book of Genesis, the dignity of human work has long been celebrated as a participation in the creative work of God. By work, humankind both fulfills the command found in Genesis to care for the earth (Gn 2:15) and to be productive in their labors. Saint Joseph, the carpenter and foster father of Jesus, is but one example of the holiness of human labor.

Jesus, too, was a carpenter. He learned the trade from Saint Joseph and spent his early adult years working side-by-side in Joseph's carpentry shop before leaving to pursue his ministry as preacher and healer. In his encyclical Laborem Exercens, Pope John Paul II stated: "the Church considers it her task always to call attention to the dignity and rights of those who work, to condemn situations in which that dignity and those rights are violated, and to help to guide [social] changes so as to ensure authentic progress by man and society."

Saint Joseph is held up as a model of such work. Pius XII emphasized this when he said, "The spirit flows to you and to all men from the heart of the God-man, Savior of the world, but certainly, no worker was ever more completely and profoundly penetrated by it than the foster father of Jesus, who lived with Him in closest intimacy and community of family life and work."
