

DepEd Tagbilaran inaugurates New Division Office

By Dr. Aquilino T. Milar, Jr.

The Department of Education-Tagbilaran City inaugurated its new Division Office in Dampas last Friday, May 25, 2018. The activity started with a holy mass officiated by Rev. Fr. Agerio V. Paña, followed by the ribbon-cutting, the blessing of the new building, a short program and punctuated with a fellowship lunch.

Three most prominent figures graced the occasion. Governor Edgar Chatto joined the DepEd family in their success and congratulated them for their new home, their new office building.

The Honorable Mayor John Geesnell L. Yap II of Tagbilaran City LGU who donated the lot expressed his joy when the project was realized. He recalled how Dr. Zapanta was given this favored lot as a gesture of the mayor's love for DepEd.

The DepEd Regional Director, Dr. Juliet A. Jeruta expressed her gratitude in her inspiration message, stressing the good points DepEd Tagbilaran City has contributed to the success of the Regional Performance, to mention the best practices in the Senior High School implementation.

With a heart overflowing with joy, Dr. Virginia Zapanta, the Schools Division Superintendent expressed her gratitude to the stakeholders who are instrumental in the realization of her dream of leaving a legacy before she retires.

In Dr. Zapanta's response, she thanked all the Regional Officials led by Dr. Jeruta, RD and Dr. Salustiano Jimenez, ARD. She also thanked the DOLCI Construction for being a partner in finishing the project.
