DIVISION MEMORANDUM

NO. 144 s. 2018

Division Training for Career Advocates on Career Guidance Trends/Strategies/Modules

To: Education Program Supervisors
School Heads of the Public Secondary Schools
Other Concerned

1. The Department issued DepEd Memorandum No. 169, s. 2018 entitled Implementation of the Grade 12 Guidance Program in support to the implementation of Grade 12 Career Guidance Program. Career Guidance Program plays a significant role in this time of globalization where there are myriads of career options for our learners. It assists the learners in managing, matching and adapting their knowledge, skills and competencies to the transition from the theory learned in the school to the world of work. Thus, recognizing the needs for career guidance program, this Division will conduct a Division Training for Career Advocates on Guidance Trends/Strategies/Modules on December 4-7, 2018 at the Denrick's Food and Catering Services along M. Torralba Street, Tagbilaran City.
2. Participants to this training are the Guidance Counselors/Designates both in the elementary and secondary and two teachers per grade level for Grades 10-12 while DCPNHS has to send 3 teachers per grade level for Grades 10-12.
3. Participants are required to bring available Career Guidance Modules available in their school.
4. Please be guided accordingly and see to it that classes will not be disrupted.
