DR. MARCELO K. PALISPIS, Ed.D.
OIC-Tagbilaran City School Division
Dampas District, Tagbilaran City

Dear Dr. Palispis:

Greetings!

The Provincial Government of Bohol, in partnership with the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA), has embarked on a cultural mapping project in the province of Bohol. This project is a very significant component of the soon to be established Bohol Institute of Living Traditions (BILT). The BILT will be an institution for cultural orientation and education, research, training, professional development, popularization, production, promotions, and evaluation of Boholano cultural heritage and contemporary creation.

Ten (10) pilot sites, including the City of Tagbilaran, will undergo the cultural mapping activities this year. The output of this research activity will be cultural profiles for each of these sites and will describe the eco-cultural heritage features, spellout their various dimensions of significance, identify their current status or condition and the conservation measures being undertaken. For us, the cultural profile of each of the barangays will serve as substantial reference in drawing up various city and barangay development plans.

A five-day Cultural Mapping Training for Local Facilitators was conducted here in Bohol on October 15-19. Participants from the Department of Education-Tagbilaran City Schools Division and the fifteen barangays of Tagbilaran City were trained utilizing the UNESCO-NCCA mapping forms. After the training, a series of consultative meetings were conducted with the trainees to prepare them for the actual mapping activities.

In line with the on-going Cultural Mapping Project of the City of Tagbilaran and the Bohol Institute of Living Traditions, below is the schedule of the update of the final output and the list of the City Dep.Ed Mappers for the Cultural Mapping:

- January 15: Venue: City Administrator Conference Room, 2nd Floor City Hall Building

Cluster 4 -9AM to 10AM (Dampas and Dao)

Very truly yours,

JOHN GEESNELL L. YAP II
