1. Due to unforeseen conditions which involved urgent participation of some members of the Regional Personnel Selection Board in other activities, the conduct of interview for the qualified applicants vying respectively for the published vacant positions in the regional office, as read in Regional Memorandum No. 382, s. 2019, is postponed.
2. Qualified applicants shall be notified through their contact number depicted in their accomplished letter of intent as to the date of their interview upon the availability of the members of the Personnel Selection Board and the Secretariat.
3. Be it noted that the postponement of interview DOES NOT, in anyway, extend the deadline for submission of application.
4. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
