GUKOD 2019

Like other youth organizations, Red Cross Youth uses team building activities as "skill and value formation" to its youth members. Nevertheless, RCY has a different strategy or style on giving challenges during team-building activities so-called "The Red Cross Way". During RCY trainings and social gatherings, the teambuilding activity is the most-awaited part, given that it's unique not only on the challenges themselves but also on the relevance of values and skill development in line with the works and efforts of the premiere humanitarian organization. On RCY Summer Camps, Team-building outdoor activity is commonly known as "The Amazing Solferino Race", depicting the "The Battle of Solferino" that happened at Solferino, Italy on the year 1859 wherein the idea of the Red Cross was born.

Last year, "Gukod" was organized as one of the activities of Bohol Red Cross Youth Days 2018. It was a 1-day activity of intense and extreme challenges situated on the different parts of Tagbilaran City.

This Bohol Red Cross Youth Days 2019, Red Cross Youth Bohol will once again hold the grandest and biggest event of challenges to our youth volunteers: "Gukod". This time, the intensity of challenges will be doubled. The activity is open to all RCY Volunteers from different Senior, Senior Plus, College, and Community RCY Councils.
