Dear Dr. Ocastro:

Greetings in name of the Holy Triune God!

"The Alliance of Young Speakers and Writers of Bohol" whose vision: Speak to Inspire and Be the Agent of Change to Young Boholanos is one of the 21st century academic projects of Holy Name University-Department of Information and Technology (HNU-DICT). The first ever Young Boholano Inter-School Fluency Organization is open to all public and private senior high school students whose aim is to have a yearly and friendly public speaking and writing competitions particularly on extemporaneous declamation, spoken poetry both in English and Filipino and simultaneously done on a different venue but within the vicinity of the school, the essay writing, poetry writing and flash fiction (a complete story writing within 500-1,000 words) on the first day and the debate simultaneously presented at the HNU-Barder Gymnasium and aired at HNU-DYJR station via phone patch on the second day.

The said annual gathering bearing the theme: "Preparing Young Boholanos for Life with Media and Digital Culture" which will be held on Monday and Tuesday, October 28-29, 2019 @ the Barder Gymnasium @ 7:30 a.m. -11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m. does not only train and strengthen the young Boholano senior high school students' ability on speaking and writing using the HNU-DICT Technology for Education, but also empower goodwill, camaraderie, and linkages to our public and private neighboring schools in Bohol.

In this connection, we would like to invite student members from Dr. Cecilio Putong National High School through your office to participate in the above-mentioned activity.

Anticipating for your kind approval on the matter. Thank you and more power!

Very truly yours,

FR. FRANCISCO T. ESTEPA, SVD
President
