Dear Mr. Lagura,

Greetings!

From a fledgling festival to being a byword in Bohol's culture and arts scene that is now the grandest opening salvo of the most vibrant fiesta season in the Province of Bohol happening in the merry month of May, the Saulog Tagbilaran, now on its 7th year, has, indeed, grown by leaps and bounds.

One of the prominent Himo'g Huni is a group of local musicians formed after the first all-Boholano Song Writing Competition, dubbed as "Himo'g Huni Unang Hugna". As part of the celebration of Saulog Tagbilaran, Himo'g Huni holds an annual Songwriting Competition open to all Boholanos. This year, we would like to engage and encourage more of our youth to join this competition, to help them further hone and develop their musical skills, as well as encourage them to share these for a good cause.

In this connection, we would like to request from your good office, assistance in distributing these promotional posters to our college level institutions in order to disseminate information about the contest and to encourage our students to join this competition.

Your full support shall level up the standard of our Saulog activities that will not only promote our cultural heritage and pride of place, but boost our local tourism industry as well.

Thank you very much and more power!

Very sincerely yours,

JOHN GEESNELL L. YAP II
City Mayor
