INVITATION

3rd International Loving-Peace Art Competition Preliminaries

We sincerely thank for your hard work for the dreams and hopes of children and youth in your region and we wish for the endless development of your school and your organization.

1. Introduction of the IWPG

The International Women's Peace Group (IWPG) is an international peace organization that is in special consultative status with the UN ECOSOC. There are over 100 branches throughout 130 countries with headquarters in Seoul, South Korea. IWPG aims to improve the rights and interests of women around the world, is working internationally with the heart of a mother for the empowerment of women and is working to achieve peace that transcends nationality, ethnicity, and religion..

2. Introduction of the 3rd International Loving-Peace Art Competition

IWPG is implementing the "Plant Peace" project around the world to cease global war and to realize world peace for the future generations. As part of this project, the International Loving-Peace Art Competition is an art contest to spread a culture of peace. It will plant seeds of peace within the hearts of children so that they can grow with the heart of peace.

This year's third preliminary round will be an opportunity for children who have been struggling due to COVID19 to heal and to freely express peace that is within to their heart's content. It will be a platform for coexistence and communication.

3. Request for Cooperation in Recruitment of Participants for the Preliminaries

The organization hopes that the students of your school can participate in the preliminary round June 6 - June 26 so that they can open a heart of peace through art. We request for your cooperation so that many children and youth can participate in the contest.
