SUBJECT: ATTENDANCE TO THE SAULOG TAGBILARAN 2022 LAUNCHING PROGRAM AND BLOOD COMPACT ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATIVE PROGRAM ON MARCH 16, 2022

For most of us, at this time of the year, we are finding joy in the planning and celebrating of festivals, fiestas, and other gatherings that bond families and friends together during the summer months.

Most of the religious festivals celebrate faith, hope, and prosperity, but since we are all managing additional stress related to the progression of the COVID-19 pandemic and its prevailing threat to our health, as well as that of our families and our communities, we are trying our best to hold on to the meaning and celebrate life and resilience all the more than we give significance to them in the past. Although many things are beyond our control right now, we do have the ability to be creative and we may even ponder on this difficult time as the turning point to learn new ways to reinvigorate our well-being. Accepting the reality of our situation that maybe things, in time, will return to “normal”, can help balance safety and revelry.

Indeed, it is therefore a great challenge for the City Government of Tagbilaran, through the Saulog Tagbilaran 2022 Executive Committee, to plan our festivities in such a way that we will still be able to focus on the beautiful meaning of the celebration in honor of Saint Joseph the Worker, the city’s patron saint.

Along this line, we are inviting you, the officers of the Tagbilaran City Council for Culture and the Arts (TCCCA), to join us in the SAULOG TAGBILARAN 2022 LAUNCHING PROGRAM AND BLOOD COMPACT ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATIVE PROGRAM slated for MARCH 16, 2022, 8:30 in the morning thanks giving mass at St. Joseph Cathedral and 3:00 in the afternoon Wreath Laying, at the Tagbilaran City Friendship Park in Barangay Bool, Tagbilaran City, Bohol.

We shall continue to follow the health and safety standard protocols to prevent the transmission of the virus and make Saulog Tagbilaran a “safe” festival.

Thank you for your full support and cooperation.

Very truly yours,

CATHELYN O. TORREMOCHA, CPA
OIC-City Administrator

PROF. JOSHIBIAH G. DE JUAN
Chairman, City Council for Culture and Arts
Punong Barangay
Brgy. Poblacion 1, Tagbilaran City, Bohol

Dear Prof. De Juan:

Greetings!

This time of year, for most of us, is a time for finding joy in the planning and celebrating of festivals, fiestas, and other gatherings that bond families and friends together during the summer months.

Most of the religious festivals celebrate faith, hope, and prosperity, but since we are all managing additional stress related to the progression of the COVID-19 pandemic and its prevailing threat to our health, as well as that of our families and our communities, we are trying our best to hold on to the meaning and even celebrate life and resilience all that more than we give significance to them in the past.

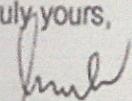

Part of the tradition, Saulog Tagbilaran will be officially launched on March 16, 2022, coinciding with the 457th anniversary of the Blood Compact between Datu Sikatuna and Miguel Lopez de Legaspi. In line with this, may we request your presence together with your members during the Thanksgiving Mass on March 16, 2022 at 8:30 in the morning at the Cathedral of Saint Joseph the Worker.

In addition, we are also inviting the council as one of our guests during the wreath-laying ceremony and the grand launching of Saulog Tagbilaran 2022 on the same day, March 16, 2022, 3:00 PM at the Blood Compact Site, Tagbilaran City Friendship Park, Brgy. Bool, Tagbilaran City, Bohol.

Your attendance will certainly radiate hope and positivity amidst the pandemic without sacrificing people's safety, as well as strengthening the Tagbilaranon's culture of resilience through the arts.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

CATHELYN O. TORREMOCHA, CPA, MPA
OIC-City Administrator
Co-Chair, Saulog Tagbilaran 2022
