To whom it may concern,

Greetings of peace and prosperity!

Dear Directors

The Ybarra Scholars and Fellows (a registered member of the UN Department of Social and Economic Affairs) in partnership with OXFAA University, Algilani Institute International, Theophany International University, the Royal Kutai Mulawarman Peace International Institute, Inc. SEC CN 2021104036, Unity World Peace Poets SEC CN 202102058 and other well-established academic organizations and representatives of the Leaders Autonomy International will be conducting the 10th International Multidisciplinary Research Conference on Mindanao Studies and Awarding of Professor ad Honorem pro Saecularibus, Honorary Degree Conferment, and the Ybarra Crescent Scholars Award with the theme: "Research and Pedagogy: The Value and Future of Mindanao to the Philippines and the World."

This highly-technical and scholarly-activity includes three parts in which teacher, researchers, and leaders may integrate their knowledge and expertise. A research conference on Mindanao Studies is advocated through the Ybarra Lecture Series. The final activity of the program will be the awarding of related certificates including Outstanding Teacher/Researcher/School Leader; Certificate of Participation; a Certificate of Membership from international organizations; and other befitting awards.

We have come last June 2022 and due to the increment demand of the scholars and fellows, we have made this activity exclusively for them. The organization hopes to have a good partnership with the Museum as it represents the crowning glory of Marawi, and perhaps the whole of Mindanao. The target date will be on March 2023. The venue, awards criteria, standards, and qualification rating, invitation, and other formalities will be sent through a Google Chatroom that will be created for this particular purpose.

Sincerely yours,

Zaldy Carreon De Leon Jr., LPT, PhD, DLitt
