Dear RD Jimenez,

Greetings!

For 100 years, the Philippine Nurses Association (PNA) remained to be the vanguard and champion of the welfare of nurses in different fields of practice. With the changing environmental landscape spawned by various socio-political advancements, the needs of nurses also changed largely that must be addressed. PNA seeks to form a strong alliance with concerned agencies to design initiatives that will ultimately address these concerns. Such is a manifestation of PNA's commitment in caring for the nurses of today that will be significant in safeguarding the future – one that has a strong and united nursing profession that will be responsible in promoting health, preventing, and managing disease, and in rehabilitating. In the celebration of PNA's 7th Summer Conference, the International Council of Nurses' (ICN), "Our Nurses, Our Future", shall be the focus, which set on May 12, 2023, at Golden Peak Hotel and Suites, Cebu City.
