Dr. Dexter Galban
Assistant Secretary for Operations
Department of Education

Dear Asec Galban:

Warmest greetings of peace and good health!

We would like to thank you and your good office for the kind assistance during the research and consultation phase of CHANGE MAKER 2040 Science Museum. We hope to pursue our commitment in spreading awareness among the Filipinos about the importance of each and everyone's participation to achieve the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

A week after the launching of the very first SDG museum in our country, inquiries have poured in already. It is in this regard that we would like to request for your good office to kindly review the curriculum alignment we have attached herewith, which we prepared while conceptualizing CHANGE MAKER 2040. Likewise, we would like to request for your endorsement for CHANGE MAKER 2040 to be included in PAEC's list of educational venues that has passed DepEd's standards for out of school learning venues like Food Wanderer X Ladbay Museo, Tales of Illumina, Dream Lab, Museum of Emotions, Omniverse Museum, Whimsical Wonderland, Art Boom, and Craft Academy.

CHANGE MAKER 2040 FEATURES:

DIORAMAS - miniature dioramas depicts the current status of the earth and its inhabitants aligned to showcase the reality of day to day life in this planet.

ART INSTALLATIONS - carefully thought gigantic installations are some of the focal points inside the museum. These installations will help create awareness and better understanding among the younger guests why the 17 SDGs are important to be a part of our lives.

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY - they are presented in such a way that it links its purpose in solving the global crisis and not just to create innovation for businesses. A room was devoted for science exhibit for general understanding where guests can really think on how best these science principles can be used to address the different challenges of our planet.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) - there are AI activities that show that AI can supplement human efforts to combining SDG problems and issues. But remember, nothing beats human intelligence. AI need a supplied human intelligence before it can generate positive and useful outcome.

Augmented Reality (AR) - some AR activities are in place to make understanding of SDG easier and fun. It presents an immersive experience among the museum guests. CHANGE MAKER 2040 make learning through awareness easy and fun.

Audio and Visual Presentations - are continuously playing in each and every area of the museum for better understanding of the impacts of human carelessness to Earth's life. Trivia are also included in piped in audio presentation in different areas of the museum. Guests may have additional information about biotechnology while watching available videos within the museum's science room.

Psychomotor Activities - are abound in different rooms of the museum that are aligned with the understanding of the SDGs. These activities made guests engage more as they learn the importance of their contribution in fulfilling the SDGs not only for themselves, but for the world. -

Event Hall - a mixed use space was allotted for future seminars and activities of different SDG-oriented organizations.

Commitment Area - a special area where all guests can write their pledge of commitment to supporting their country and the world's SDGs. Through these commitments, the museum aims to inspire visitors to act as change makers to combat the urgent environmental, political, and economic challenges.
