STATESMANSHIP SUMMIT V: GATHERING OF NOBLES

TRAINING DESIGN

I. Course Description

The annual Statesmanship Summit: Gathering of Nobles, designed to convene transformational leaders, is dedicated to fortifying the pursuit of good governance through statesmanship across diverse fields both in public and private sectors. This year's summit focuses on the theme "Leading with Honor," emphasizing the critical role of ethical leadership in fostering meaningful and sustainable change. Participants will explore strategies to embody statesmanship, anchored on integrity, accountability, and innovation, to address contemporary challenges and contribute to a brighter future for the nation. This year's summit expands its scope to include discussions on honorable leadership in different contexts, including the family, public service (elected and appointed positions), and the private sector.

II. Objectives

Performance Objectives:

Participants will be able to develop actionable strategies for integrating honorable leadership principles into their respective sectors, contributing to sustainable national development.

Learning Objectives:

- a. Identify the core principles of honorable leadership across various sectors and its impact on governance, organizational culture, and societal progress.
- b. Illustrate strategies for embedding honor and integrity in leadership practices within families, public service, and private entities.
- c. Develop innovative practices that embody honorable leadership principles.

III. Content

1. Keynote Message: "Leading with Honor"

Introduce core principles of honorable leadership, establishing the foundational framework for ethical governance across sectors.

2. Session 1: Honorable Leadership in the Family

Explore the family's critical role in developing honorable leadership, examining how family values shape future leaders and societal transformation.

3. Session 2: Honorable Leadership in Public Service

Explore leadership dynamics in government, recognizing unique ethical challenges and responsibilities affecting both elected and appointed officials and employees.

4. Session 3: Honorable Leadership in the Private Sector

Assess strategies for embedding integrity and ethical practices within private organizations, balancing objectives with social responsibility.

5. Session 4: Honorable Leadership in Public-Private Engagement

Determine collaborative approaches for cross-sector leadership, focusing on maintaining integrity and shared values in addressing national challenges.

6. Session 5: Innovative Practices for Good Governance

Explore technological and strategic innovations that enhance governance effectiveness while maintaining ethical standards.

7. Session 6: Strengthening Honorable Leadership Across Generations

Develop strategies for mentorship and knowledge transfer and create institutional cultures that perpetuate principled leadership over time.

IV. Venue & Set-Up

The summit will be conducted virtually via Zoom, ensuring accessibility for participants nationwide. A private Facebook Group Page will serve as a centralized hub for updates, downloadable materials, session recordings, and networking opportunities.

V. Participants

The summit is designed for leaders from various sectors, including:

1. Public servants (elected and appointed officials and employees).
2. Corporate leaders, SME owners, managers, supervisors, and employees.
3. Other members of the private sector (CSOs, cooperatives, People's Organizations, NGOs, membership associations, churches and fellowships, etc.)

VI. Training Fee and Inclusions

The training fee is ₱4,000 per participant for early bird registrants (on or before March 31, 2025) and ₱4,500 after this date. The fee includes access to all sessions, summit materials, and a certificate for 20 hours of leadership training.

STATESMANSHIP SUMMIT V: GATHERING OF NOBLES

The Council for the Restoration of Filipino Values (CRFV) will conduct the Statesmanship Summit V: Gathering of Nobles with the theme, Leading with Honor, via Zoom online platform on April 23-25, 2025.

The CRFV theme for this year emphasizes the crucial role of principled leadership in driving national transformation.

The summit is a gathering of leaders from various sectors, including family, public service (both elected and appointed officials), and the private sector, such as corporate organizations, civil society organizations, and small and medium enterprises (SMEs), to engage in proactive discussions and initiatives that contribute to meaningful change within our community and spheres of influence.

Interested participants may register through email at info.convention@crfv-cpu.org on or before April 18, 2025.

Participation of teachers from public and private schools shall be purely voluntary and will not hamper instructional time in compliance with the provisions of DepEd Order (DO) No. 009, s. 2024, titled Implementing Guidelines on the School Calendar and Activities for the School Year 2024-2025 and DO 9, s. 2005 titled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith and the policy on off-campus activities stated in DO 66, s. 2017.

This is also subject to the no-collection policy as stated in Section 3 of Republic Act No. 5546 also known as An Act Prohibiting the Sale of Tickets and/or the Collection of Contributions for Whatever Project or Purpose from Students and Teachers of Public and Private Schools, Colleges and Universities (Ganzon Law), issued in DO 19, s. 2008, and reiterated in DepEd Memorandum No. 041, s. 2024.
