Dear Sir/Ma'am,

Greetings of peace!

3ventor Educational Events Organizing Services believe that education is the core of a successful nation and by that, we would like to take part on molding and imparting knowledge to students in Bohol. Through an unconventional and fun filled approach, we believe it will give our student a very meaningful learning experience and realization that learning is fun.

We hope to conduct an Interactive Science exhibit in your school. We assure your office that contents and materials to be used will be align with schools' curriculum and ideals.

We will make sure that no one will be deprived of learning. We will reach to each and every student that will participate.

As for the safety of our students, presentation of exhibits will be held in school campus or in any venue that will be approved as safe and convenient by the school. All throughout the event, we will provide professional exhibit facilitator who will closely monitor and assist our students. We guarantee that all materials that we will use and present are all safe and that it will not harm our students. We, at the Eventor Education Events Organizing Services hope that your office will give us a chance to be part in molding our students, Thank you.
