2. The separation of 8 divisions under the operation of the Negros Island Region (NIR) has led to a lesser number of football officials, resulting in fewer trained personnel available to manage and officiate football events in the region. To address this gap and ensure the continued development and quality of football, a capacity-building seminar will be conducted.

3. In this regard, we are requesting two (2) officials/future officials of football per division, aged 40 years and below, to attend the seminar on capability-building and recruitment. Registration is FREE of charge. The participants must prepare and bring the following:

- Whistle
- Rubber and Football Shoes
- Medical Certificate stating that he/she is physically/medically fit.

Greetings Sir Jimenez!

The Philippine Football Federation in cooperation with the Cebu Regional Football Association and the Province of Bohol Regional Football Association will have a Basic Referees Course to be held at Bohol this July 18-20, 2025.

As our CVIRAA is in transition with some divisions that will be separated to the newly form Negros Island Region, our list of football officials will be few in numbers. We wish to include our officials and future officials that they will be part of this seminar for capability building, and recruitment.

Instructors for this seminar is our very own Assistant tournament manager of the Palarong Pambansa DENNIS ESTANIEL (Negros Island Region, SDO Bacolod City) and yours truly (Region 7, SDO Cebu City). Seminar Incharge is Juan Torregoza of SDO Bohol Province.

I also attached the PFF communication for hosting confirmation

Hoping for a favorable response! Your approval is highly recognized, and it would great help for our future CVIRAA meets

Thank you and God Bless!

ALL THE BEST!!

Sincerely,
