Hi Sheila Mae,

Bett Asia returns to Kuala Lumpur on October 1–2, bringing together over 2,000 regional education leaders for three powerful days of learning, networking and inspiration. With less than two months to go, here are five reasons not to miss Bett Asia 2025...

1. Practical AI insights & tech

Discover how GenAI and personalised learning tools are being used in classrooms at the expo and with AI-focused sessions like Maximise personalisation in teaching and learning with AI by ELSA Corp.

2. Policy-level influence

Engage with Ministries of Education and government leaders at the Ministerial & Policy Leaders' Roundtable, tackling the digital transformation of education across Southeast Asia.

3. A world-class agenda

From inclusion to innovation, the 2025 agenda is packed with unmissable sessions like Implementing assistive tech into every classroom, A human-centred approach to AI and Reimagining the future of classroom-based learning. See the full agenda here

4. Celebrate student-led innovation

Cheer on the region's brightest young minds at the Bett Asia School Challenge Awards, spotlighting real solutions for real challenges, from climate to classroom equity.

5. Be where change happens

This is your chance to connect with peers, pioneers and policymakers shaping education's future. Whether you're driving strategy or classroom change, Bett Asia is where momentum begins.
