Dear Ms. Samuya:

Greetings!

The "Batang Pinoy" (Filipino Youth) was established as the national youth sports competition of the Philippines for athletes under 15 years old, including out-of-school youth, by virtue of Executive Order No. 44, signed by then-President Joseph Ejercito Estrada on December 2, 1998.

During the Luzon, Visayas, and Mindanao qualifying legs, the following sports will be featured: archery, arnis, athletics, badminton, baseball, basketball, boxing, chess, dancesport, futsal, karatedo, lawn tennis, pencak silat, sepak takraw, softball, swimming, table tennis, taekwondo, and volleyball (indoor and beach), Weightlifting, Wrestling and Wushu.

As the capital and the only component city of Bohol, Tagbilaran City is expected to strongly support this initiative, demonstrating its commitment to youth development through sports.
