SUBJECT: RESCHEDULING OF THE DEPED NEU VISAYAS CLUSTER ASSEMBLY

In light of the overwhelming feedback and formal requests received from our members across the Visayas regions, the National Executive Committee has conducted a thorough assessment regarding the viability of our upcoming assembly.

To ensure maximum participation and to align with the Department's heavy operational schedule, the DepEd NEU Visayas Clustered Assembly, originally scheduled for May 6-8, 2026, is hereby moved to July 1-3, 2026.

This rescheduling is necessitated by several critical factors that would significantly impact delegate attendance:

Palarong Pambansa 2026: With the National Games set to open on May 24, 2026, the weeks leading up to this date are dedicated to the final training and movement of athletes and coaches. Many of our union members serve as technical officials or delegation staff, making their attendance in May impossible.

Urgency of Learning Reforms: Many members are currently spearheading the orientation and cascading of major reforms for SY 2026-2027. This includes the implementation of the Trimester System, the ARAL Program, and new ECCD management protocols.

Economic Volatility: We are cognizant of the current economic crisis exacerbated by conflicts in the Middle East, which has triggered sharp increases in travel and fuel costs. Moving the date to July allows members more time for financial planning and for the Union to secure better logistics.
